

Dear Parents/Guardians,

My name is Jenni Stevens and I will be offering individual flute lessons at Hordle School in the new year. I have a BMus (Hons) degree and ATCL in flute performance. I have taught flute (along with piano and music theory) for many years both privately at Hordle School prior to COVID. I have taught those wanting to learn for pleasure and students who have taken ABRSM exams. I am very familiar with Hordle School as both my children went there from Year R to year 6.

Flute lessons will take place weekly on a Friday afternoon. Lessons are for twenty minutes and the cost is £12.00 for a private lesson. Fees are payable in advance at the beginning of every term to myself (not the school). If a student stops or misses a lesson(s) during that term, no refund is available. If, for any reason, I am absent, then a discount would be made from the following term's invoice, or, if you decide not to continue lessons, then a retrospective refund will be paid at the end of that term.

Pupils need to have their own flute and book (Abracadabra Flute book). I can advise on the purchase and hire of flutes, but would recommend looking at hiring from Hayes Music, Just Flutes or All Flutes Plus initially in order to see how your child gets on. Younger pupils might benefit from a flute with a curved head joint. Pupils will also need to be able to commit to practicing in between lessons.

If you have any questions or queries please feel free to contact me via phone on 07985 410749 or email: Jenni_Stevens@hotmail.com

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Jenni Stevens

I would like my child to have flute lessons at Hordle School.

My child is in good health and I consider him/her capable of taking part in flute lessons.
