1. Introduction: What A Publication Scheme Is and Why It Has Been Developed?

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we have produced a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

That they may have life; life in all its fullness - John 10:10

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information. This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

2. Aims and Objectives

The school aims to:

- enable every child to fulfil their learning potential, with education that meets the needs of each child
- help every child develop the skills, knowledge and personal qualities needed for life and work and this publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

3. Categories of Information Published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme.

The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into four broad topic areas:

- A. School Website — information published on the school website.
- B. Governors' Documents — information published in the School Governing Body documents.
- C. Pupils & Curriculum — information about policies that relate to pupils and the school curriculum.
- D. School Policies, Documents and Reports and other information related to the school - information about policies that relate to the school in general.

4. How To Request Information

Where there is a charge this will be indicated by a £ sign in the description box.
